

Youth In Need Receives AT&T Grant

AT&T awarded their Exceleator Grant to fund the development of the Youth In Need Web site. AT&T Missouri President Cindy Brinkley presented the award at a special luncheon held by St. Charles City Mayor Patti York at the Columns Banquet Center on January 18, 2008. Also at the luncheon, Youth In Need and AT&T honored local and state officials with the Youth In Need Vision Award that recognizes the officials' commitment to the community.
