

James A. Braun

President and CEO

---

James A. Braun, MSW, ACSW, LCSW
President and CEO

Mr. Braun has been the Chief Executive Officer of Youth In Need since 1988. Mr. Braun has 37 years of experience in children and family community-based services and 30 years in administration of children and youth programs. He has served as a family and children's mental health consultant with major corporations and public school districts. He has extensive training and experience in areas of drug and alcohol abuse, child abuse, crisis intervention and program and resource development. Mr. Braun is known regionally and nationally for his expertise in organizational development, youth program advocacy, and community collaborations. During his tenure with Youth In Need, the organization's budget and services have increased by 2,000 percent.