

Mark Solari

Chief Financial Officer

Mark Solari, CPA
Chief Financial Officer

Mr. Solari joined Youth In Need in 2009 and is responsible for the oversight of the agency's fiscal and facility departments. He has 33 years of experience in the accounting and finance fields, working primarily in the health care sector. His expertise includes finance, accounting, administration and operations, with significant focus on business expansion, strategic planning, budgeting, fiscal analysis, audit governance and operational and cost controls. He also serves on Lindenwood University's faculty as an adjunct professor. Solari received his master's degree in business administration from Southern Illinois University.