Palm Springs isn't just a destination—it's a feeling.

Golden sunlight stretches across sculptural desert landscapes, palm trees sway against cloudless skies, and every corner feels infused with creativity and effortless style.

Surrounded by four dramatic mountain ranges, the Greater Palm Springs area blends natural beauty, architectural brilliance and laid-back luxury into one unforgettable escape. Here, days are filled with discovery and nights glow with desert magic.

Mid-Century Icons: Where Architecture Becomes Art

Step into a living design museum as you explore Palm Springs' legendary mid-century modern architecture—a style born from the desert itself.

On your guided tour, you'll discover the vision of iconic architects like William Cody, Albert Frey, Hugh Kaptur, William Krisel, Donald Wexler and E. Stewart Williams, whose bold lines, glass walls and indoor-outdoor living concepts redefined modern design.

As you glide past sleek homes, statement buildings and sun-drenched neighborhoods, you'll see how light, shadow and landscape come together to create something timeless. It's not just architecture—it's a lifestyle, shaped by the desert and still inspiring the world today.

Palm Springs Aerial Tramway: From Desert Floor to Alpine Escape

Your experience continues high above the desert aboard the Palm Springs Aerial Tramway.

As the rotating tram car ascends the cliffs of Chino Canyon, the world transforms beneath you. Desert sands give way to pine forests and sweeping views of the Coachella Valley stretch endlessly in every direction.

At the summit, nearly 8,500 feet above sea level, cool mountain air replaces desert warmth. Wander scenic trails, take in breathtaking overlooks, or simply pause and soak in the stillness. It's a rare and unforgettable contrast—two completely different worlds in a single afternoon.

Your Stay: HOTEL PASEO—Desert Chic Meets Boutique Luxury

Your home for three nights is HOTEL PASEO, a modern boutique retreat where style, comfort and location come together seamlessly.

Set along the iconic El Paseo—often called the “Rodeo Drive of the Desert”—the hotel places you steps from upscale shopping, art galleries, acclaimed dining and vibrant nightlife.

Inside, your classic king room offers a refined yet relaxed atmosphere, blending clean design with warm desert tones. Outside, unwind by the pool, sip cocktails under the sun or explore the energy of Palm Desert just beyond your door.

Here, every detail invites you to slow down, soak it in and experience Palm Springs at its most stylish.

Please note: The daily resort fee is the responsibility of the guest and can be paid upon arrival at the hotel.
