Welcome to the Monterey Peninsula

There are few places where land and sea come together with such quiet drama. Along California's legendary Central Coast, Monterey unfolds in layers of misty mornings, sunlit fairways and the rhythmic hush of waves rolling in from the Pacific. This is a destination where time slows, nature takes center stage and golf is woven into the very fabric of the landscape. With its mild coastal climate and iconic scenery, Monterey is a pilgrimage for golfers and travelers alike.

Day on the Links: Del Monte™ Golf Course

Step onto history with a round at Del Monte™, the oldest golf course west of the Mississippi and a cornerstone of American golf since 1897. Set among towering Monterey pines and rolling coastal terrain, this classic layout blends old-world charm with strategic play. Small, sloping greens demand precision, while wide fairways invite confidence and creativity.

Whether you're walking in the footsteps of champions or simply savoring a leisurely round with ocean air drifting through the trees, Del Monte™ offers a golf experience that feels both storied and personal—a true nod to the golden age of the game.

Your Coastal Retreat: Hyatt Regency Monterey

After your day on the course, return to the Hyatt Regency Monterey—a destination resort nestled within 22 acres of majestic Monterey pines. Just minutes from the beach and steps from Del Monte™ Golf Course, the hotel feels effortlessly connected to its surroundings.

Relax by one of the outdoor pools, stroll the scenic walking trails or unwind with a drink beside the fireplace as live music sets the mood. Dining options range from California-inspired cuisine with Tuscan flair to casual lounges perfect for recounting the day's best shots. With downtown Monterey, Carmel-by-the-Sea, Cannery Row and the world-famous Monterey Bay Aquarium all within easy reach, every moment here feels both relaxed and richly rewarding.
